The cost for traditional wastewater treatment is approx. 0.17 €/m³ and leaves about half of the pharmaceutical residue in the water. And this is the half where the most persistent and bioactive residue exists.

With only an additional 0.06 €/m³ the remaining half can be almost entirely removed.